
Project Organization – Compliance Team

You can count on us to bring the right people to the table.

Niall Twomey
Principal, CRCM

Niall has spent more than 25 years in the regulatory compliance field and leads Crowe's Fair Lending practice, within Internal Audit. He is primarily involved in conducting and overseeing Compliance and Fair Lending Program Assessments, audits and consultations within the financial services industry.

He maintains correspondence with regulators, has frequent speaking roles at conferences and webinars, and makes regular presentations to audit and supervisory committees.

Justin Brown
Manager, CRCM

Justin has more than 8 years of experience helping Financial Institutions in various areas including Consumer Compliance, Fair Lending, and UDAAP Compliance.

Since joining Crowe's Internal Audit practice in October 2020, Justin has led the development and execution of regulatory compliance focused internal audit plans at large financial institutions, including national commercial and consumer banks and financial technology firms. His clients are governed by all of the primary banking regulatory agencies.
